Topic: Side Impact Protection for Children and Child Restraints: Making Sense of New Information

Date: Wednesday, February 8, 2012      Time: 12:15 - 1:30 PM

Call in number: 877-894-3031      Conference # 32522824

Ask for "Let's Talk – Child Passenger Safety"

Intended Audience: Pediatricians, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, Nurses, Office Managers, Office Staff and certified child passenger safety technicians/instructors

Objectives — At the conclusion of the activity, participants should be able to:

- Understand pediatric injury patterns of side impact crashes compared to other types of crashes.
- Provide basic information for physicians regarding expected governmental regulations on side impact protection for children in child restraints.
- Provide strategies that the child restraint industry might use to meet federal regulations which may assist pediatricians who respond to inquiries from concerned parents.
- Provide anticipatory guidance concerning best practice recommendations for side impact protection in available child passenger safety restraints.

This educational activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and the Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics. The University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine designates this live educational activity for a maximum of one (1.0) AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Each physician should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. Other health care professionals are awarded (0.1) continuing education units (CEU's) which are equivalent to 1.0 contact hours. Presenters for this program have been requested to identify significant financial or other relationships with manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) or with provider(s) of any commercial service(s) which, in the context of their topics, could be perceived as real or apparent conflicts of interest.

This teleconference has been approved for 1.0 CEU for CPS Re-certification.
